

WEDNESDAY, August 6, 1850.

Editor's Note.—The Kinty has been so greatly agitated by the doings of Congress, and especially by the attempt of the Senate to establish an Omnibus bill to run across the people's line between California, Texas and Mexico, and various other passages, that I think it is a duty I owe my Kinty to publish a history of the treason, the attempt, like all other great undertakings, has been Kristined the "Omnibus Bill" but when first introduced into the Senate, it was kauld the "kompromise" and its friends proposed to run it as a komprromise line between Fre soil and niggers, and to stop when it reached the stitemint of the kuestin. The splendence of the wheikle had sich an effect on mi optic nerves when I first got a site of it, that mi familee Dokke has fabled that I sude expseye Ste on the subject, I must there 4 kuint myself bi giv- in an idee of the team, I wil s a housom- ever, that the Omnibus was bilt bi the Kommittee of 13 which was razed on motion of Mistur Foot of Mississippi—not wishin to du enny wan, enny injustis, I wil stait that mistur Felps denied that he hed enny hand in its kunstrukshun it was housomever brout intoe to the Sinate bi the Kommittee. The proprietors kommitted hiehin up Mister Kley and Kas as wheel horses, who were choosen for that resposi- bility, for akount of these atchamint for the Yunion; but it was sone found out, that the wind of the Kentucky hoss was much longer, and klearer than the nages from Michigan, who appears owly, intinded for a draft hoss awe a long pull and a strong pull and the ware konsistentl found in the sain kundi-shun of tu of Patoes skolt- ers, "wan vinted the reins and the other the spurs." The next steps to be harnis the "konstitushun" of Mississippi; bat gun- powder it was disorded to be so all-fired firey that the direkturs ware obliged to gin him a pare of times to hisself, and I am told that it was fortunait the mistak was erly rek- tified, for one was pullin for the konsitushun and the moral laws while the firey nag was makin a ded set fur the grave of the Wilnot proviso.

Mistur Peerce and Sheelds ware pullin fur the Yunion, and thare shers-huns ware so grato, tha pullid the gus owter the hole kunsern, or, as Kurnell Bentun kawl it, tha noked its branes out.

Mistur Peerce's skill in snrgere was dis- plade to so grato an advantage that fokes here insinuat that he has ben takin lesuns AnaTomy, in that grate Hoy Stait, Ohio; but his friends pronounce it a bias slander upon his poliurkal reputashun. Mistur Sheelds was, at wan time, thaut too bee pullin in the rite trak, but he got skeered and deugh over tooe to the amindment of Mistur Peerce as clurve mentioned. It was thaut bi the friends of the Bus that it would intese the team and liten the lode, by offur in konsultore amindments in andwer to harnes the Texas Siniturs, and this skeeme so fur susedd it to gane 2 snurn and lose 4 Northern votes which was konsidered bi sam as a klear gane of 2 as demonstrated bi mathu matux. I intind to inform the peple from time to time of enny invashin of these rites, or enkrachments upon the Konsi- tushun.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, FOR 1850.
"The Book of the Nation."

THE OLDEST MAGAZINE IN AMERICA. Published by the present Proprietor for Twenty Years.
EDITED BY MRS. SARAH J. HALE.

Comparison between "Godey" and the other Philadelphia Monthlies.

In 1849, the Lady's Book gave 916 pages—which is 116 more than one, and 148 pages more than the other Philadelphia monthly.—It gave 281 engravings—among which were 20 colored, and 93 full pages—which is 136 more than one, and 180 more than the other. We gave, in each number, a piece of music, printed separately on tinted paper, making 2-pages, or 12 pieces in a year. To show the cheapness of the Lady's Book, this same music if bought separately at the music stores, would cost exactly the price of the whole year's subscription—$2.

Some of our peculiar Embellishments.

Ladies' Work Table, which comprises every kind of Needlework, Embroidery, Knitting, Netting, Crochet, Patterns for Caps, Chemisettes, Children's clothes, Wedding Dresses, In-door and Out-door costumes; Birds of America; Colored Flower Plates; Model Cottages and Furniture; Fashionable do.; Lace-Work; Vignette Plates at the head of articles, etc. etc. All the above are illustrated by engravings.

The Costumes of all Nations.

With descriptions by Mrs. Hale. Most of the old features of the Book that were so popular last year, will be retained, and new ones added as they may suggest themselves to the publisher.

A New Novel, by W. Gilmore Simms, will be one of the features for 1850.

OUR READING MATTER.

We have long stood at the head of the magazine world for our contributions; they are always moral and instructive, and such as may be placed before a family without hesitation. This department is under the control of Mrs. SARAH JOSEPH HALE, whose name alone is a sufficient guarantee for the propriety of the Lady's Book. We may say the same of our engravings. We will never, as is done by a contemporary, publish indecent model-artist pictures, such as no parent would allow a child to look at.

Godey's Lady's Book for 1850 shall surpass that of 1849, and exceed all magazines—past, present and to come.

Terms, Cash in advance, postage paid.

Magnificent and Expensive Premiums.

Subscribers to a Club or single Subscribers, may choose different Engravings. One copy 1 year $3, with any two of the following splendid premium plates: "Death Bed of the Rev. John Wesley," "Wesley Preaching in the Gwensap Amphitheatre," "America Guided by Wisdom," "General Taylor and Old Whitey," "Likeness of the Rev. John Wesley," "Do, of his co-laborer, the Rev. John Fletcher"—the last two, though separate engravings, we count only as one premium.

Two Copies for $5, and any two of the above prints to each subscriber. Five copies for $10, and an extra copy of the Book, and any two of the above engravings to the person sending the club. Eleven copies for $24, and an extra copy of the Book, and any three of the above engravings to the person sending the club.

Any person sending $5 in advance, subscription for 1850 and '51, will be entitled to any four of the above engravings.
